

XM should be able to compete fairly with the other big radio companies. They offer orginative programming that cannot be found on regular broadcasting. They should be allowed to offer local prgramming in case there might be life threatning situations that may arise to alert us listners of the local news item. Especially if we are in areas where where the reception of regular over the air radio stations do not come in as well.